A personal message from Pam Weston, Founder

I founded U.S. Career Institute in order to provide busy adults with professional-level career training that can be completed at home. Over the years, thousands of outstanding graduates have testified to our unique blend of caring attention, easy-to-follow instruction and special services.

I'm especially proud that our roster of educators, administrators and program developers includes highly dedicated professionals, all working toward one goal—your success!

You will not find a more committed faculty anywhere. Rest assured that every one of us will do everything we can to help you fulfill your dream of entering an exciting, new career.

Pam Weston

Pam Weston,
Founder

Meet the people who will help you get your Career Diploma.

- Ann Rohr, President

Ann began her education career in elementary school education for the State of New Jersey. After taking time off to raise a family, she returned to the educational arena when she joined USCI in 1993. Ann is a credentialed instructor in the State of Colorado. As President, Ann is responsible for guiding the school in all areas.

- Cole P. Thompson, Dean of Alumni

Cole began his career in distance education over 25 years ago. Since then, he has focused primarily on providing quality distance education to adult learners. Cole holds a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from California State University. As Dean of Alumni, Cole oversees the USCI Graduate Services Department, stays abreast of industry requirements and changes, and monitors our graduates' success.

- Patricia Bowen, Director of Education

Trish has 13 years of curriculum design experience, eight years' experience in distance education, and seven years of faculty experience at both secondary and post-secondary levels. She holds a Bachelor's of Science in Psychology and Sociology from the University of North Alabama and a Master's Degree in English Education. Trish is responsible for developing USCI curriculum and ensuring all course content is current and accurate.

- John McCarthy, Director of Business & Financial Services

Prior to joining USCI in 2005, John spent 15 years in the hospitality industry managing operational and financial activities. John earned a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from Central Michigan University and an MBA from Michigan State University, with concentrations in Finance and Corporate Accounting. John's well-balanced perspective ensures success for both the student and the school.

- Joyce Lindquist, Director of Faculty Services

After operating her own successful business for many years, Joyce joined USCI in 1993. Specialist training from Colorado State University and front-line experience in customer service, student services and instruction development combine to give Joyce a most unique, broad-based background. Joyce oversees the effectiveness and quality of our instructors' work and the continuing education of the staff.
