Q & A

Questions and Answers

Q. Do I need experience in law enforcement or corrections to succeed in the U.S. Career Institute Criminal Justice Program?

A. Not at all. If you can follow simple directions and have common sense, you can succeed in this course. The most important qualities you need to work in Criminal Justice are an open mind and the willingness to do the best job possible. You'll also want to check the regulations in your area.

Q. Why should I train with U.S. Career Institute?

A. We are experts in training people at home. No other school has the specialized experience we do. Our graduates have gone on to successful careers from coast to coast. No matter what your ultimate goal—if you want to learn Criminal Justice skills to advance at your present job or to work for local, state or federal government...or even in private industry, U.S. Career Institute can give you the professional-level skills you need!

Q. Is U.S. Career Institute accredited?

A. Yes! U.S. Career Institute is an Accredited Member of the Distance Education and Training Council. The Accrediting Commission of the Distance Education and Training Council is listed by the U.S. Department of Education as a nationally recognized accrediting agency for distance education. Because of this, our curriculum, faculty, administrative procedures and policies are reviewed on a regular basis to ensure that we continue to meet the DETC's exceptionally high standards of quality.

Q. If I'm in the military, can I be reimbursed for my tuition?

A. U.S. Career Institute is approved for G.I. Bill, VA and MyCAA education benefits. Military personnel, veterans or veteran spouses may be eligible. In addition, USCI is affiliated with the Defense Activity for Non-Traditional Education Support or DANTES program. Military personnel, including those on active duty or reserve, may be eligible for partial reimbursement of tuition upon graduation. For reimbursement information contact your VA or DANTES education officer prior to enrolling.

Q. What credentials does U.S. Career Institute have?

A. U.S. Career Institute is a state-approved school. Over the past twenty-five years, thousands of men and women have received our training. If in the future you wish to transfer USCI credits, you should check with the receiving institution because requirements vary from place to place and U.S. Career Institute makes no representation regarding transferability of credits.

Q. Are there any extras I need to buy?

A. This course includes all the materials you need to complete your training—lessons, materials, special supplements—everything is included. You will need access to a CD player.
